CHURCH BAZAAR.—The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar December 8th at 2 P. M. in the church parlors. Following the bazaar they will serve a turkey dinner at P. M.

PROMISED TO BE MORE CAREFUL.—J. C. Dorrough, who runs a local pool hall, was before Police Judge Thomas yesterday afternoon for allowing minors to play pool in his establishment. He received a fine of $10 and a sentence of ten days, but the sentence was suspended.

CASA GRANDE BOOSTER.—J. N. McFate has just returned from his gold and copper mines in the state of Sonora, Mexico, and passed through Phoenix yesterday on his way to his home in Casa Grande. He left a lot of literature on the rich Casa Grande valley, which he is booming, and also reports that his mines in Mexico are producing so well as to warrant a completed railway to the properties.

ENTERTAINMENT COURSE A SUCCESS.—The Y. M. C. A. is thoroughly satisfied with the results of Wednesday evening's entertainment from both an amusement and a financial standpoint. The organization has received many compliments on the excellence of the performance and the revenue equalled the expenditure, which is regarded as satisfactory for the first program of the course.

FRED W. PIKE SOUGHT FOR.—Fred W. Pike, a middle aged man, who worked for the Barber Asphalt Paving company as grading foreman on East Washington avenue in August, has disappeared and his whereabouts is anxiously sought by his father, J. MR. VOTER AND TAXPAYER

One minute, please:
Having been nominated by the republican party as one of the candidates for supervisor of Maricopa county, and realizing that it will be impossible for me to see all of the voters, I take this method of telling you what I stand for. I stand for a square deal for all the people. I am a progressive republican and stand for progression; but I am neither a dreamer nor a theorist. I served as supervisor for this county for four years from 1905 to 1909, and during that time devoted my time to the county's business. I personally examined every bill and voucher that went through that office. I also helped to check the reports of all the other county officers, and did everything possible to keep down unnecessary expenses, and looked after the welfare of the taxpayer.

There will be three supervisors elected this year, two for one year and one for three years. In former elections there were two members elected and one holdover member which composed the board, there always having been one member with full knowledge of the county's business. I think you will agree with me that it is to the taxpayer's best interests to have at least one member on the board who is familiar with transacting the county's business.

I do not mean to infer that the democratic candidates are not good businessmen, nor that they would not make as good supervisors as myself after they have had four years' hard work in that office.

I wish you would look up my official record and if I am elected will repay you for your trouble in good, careful, honest work.
C. S. STEWARD.

SHE COMES TO PHOENIX.—Miss Josephine Clitchley, critic teacher at the Temple normal school, is coming to Phoenix tomorrow, that she may receive skilled training for her voice.

Committee of Federation of Labor
Still Strongly Toward the McNamara Side.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—As to any knowledge of the crime for which the McNamaras have confessed, the committee of the Federation of Labor in charge of the defense fund, in a statement asserted: "We have known individually and collectively declare our first knowledge of their guilt was conveyed by the press in their confessions of guilt. From the outset we assured all contributors and the public generally we would publish an accounting of money received, from whom received, and to whom paid." The report in full will be made by the first executive council of the American Federation of Labor meeting in Washington, January 8, 1912. Partly condoning the crime of the McNamaras the statement says in the following breath: "And yet it is an awful commentary on existing conditions when one man among all the millions of workers bring himself to a frame of mind that the only means to secure justice for labor is in violence, outrage and murder." The committee denounced the "kidnaping of the McNamaras," who they say "were arrested in Russian style, to American."

Other speakers were: Secretary of the Interior Fisher, General Bixby, chief of the army engineers; Senator Fletcher, of Florida, and August Belmont, of New York.
